Name _____ Class _____

Directions: Use this graphic organizer to recall and explain important aspects of your summer reading novel. Later, you will use this information to help you create your Summer Reading project. If you kept a reading journal, use it to help.

Plot R.L. 9-10.5 (5pt)

Summarize W.9-10.10 (5pts) _____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____

Character Analysis R.L. 9-10.3 Choose 3-4 important characters from your novel. Name each, describe 1-2 character traits for each character, give an example from the novel for why you chose those traits. (10 pts)

1. _____ Why?
Traits description:

2. _____ Why?
Traits description:

3. _____ Why?
Traits description:

4. _____ Why?
Traits description:

Connections R.L. 9-10.2 As you read, you should have made some connections. Explain some of the connections you made. They might be to another book you read, a movie or television show you have watched, a piece of music you listen to, or a personal connection. (6pts)

List the type of connection and then explain how the two connect.

1. Novel to _____

2. Novel to _____

3. Novel to _____

The Big Ideas (theme) R.L. 9-10.2 As you read, you probably noticed some Big Ideas emerging. They could be about society, family, technology, or something else. What Big Ideas was your novel based around? How do you know it? (8pts)

1. Big Idea _____

I know because in the novel (this happened):

2. Big Idea _____

I know because in the novel (this happened):